2005 Patron Survey

Enclosed in this month's Sharing is the 2005 Annual Patron Survey. To help us provide you with the best service possible, please take a few minutes to respond to this year's survey. We need to hear from everyone so that we can continue to meet your needs and improve our programs and services. After responding to the questions please fold the survey so that the library's name and address appears, tape it shut, and place it in the mail. The library's name and address is printed on the back. Remember, there is no postage required. If you prefer to call your response into our office you may call toll free 1-888-263-0769 or locally 706-236-4618. You may also respond to our survey online at www.rome-lpd.org. Thank you for taking the time to participate in this year's survey.

Enjoy the Last Days of Summer With a Little Southern Humor

Lunch at the Piccadilly by Clyde Edgerton. RC 57416

Bachelor Carl Turnage visits his favorite aunt during her convalescence at a North Carolina nursing home. But Aunt Lil and some friends there crave adventure and find it when they steal a car. Meanwhile Carl joins a preacher's band at the home and attempts to begin a romance with a social worker. Some strong language.

Miss Julia Hits the Road by Ann B. Ross. RC 56262

When elderly widow Julia Springer learns that her housekeeper Lillian and other tenants are being evicted by slum landlord Clarence Gibbs, she organizes a fundraising motorcycle race to save the neighborhood. Sequel to Miss Julia Throws a Wedding (RC 54718).

The Sweet Potato Queens' Book of Love by Jill Conner Browne. RC 53169

Browne recounts the formation of the Sweet Potato Queens—a group of Jackson, Mississippi, women who wear green sequins and towering red hairdos and perform provocative dances on St. Patrick's Day. The leader, Browne, shares advice on love, life, men, and the importance of being prepared. Strong language and some descriptions of sex.
