MYSTERIES FOR READING ON A WINTER DAY

The Da Vinci Code by Dan Brown RC055735

Professor Robert Langdon investigates the crime scene of the Louvre's murdered curator. The clues left behind pit two Catholic societies against each other in search of the Holy Grail. Some violence and some strong language.

He Shall Thunder in the Sky by Elizabeth Peters RC051073

The extended Peabody Emerson family returns to Egypt for further archaeological excavation in the winter of 1914-15, even as WWI reaches the Middle East. Amidst the turmoil, Sethos the master criminal and Amelia's nemesis, reappears.

Resort to Murder. A Henrie O mystery by Carolyn Hart RC052104

Retired journalist Henrie O travels to Bermuda to support her grandchildren Diana and Neal when their father remarries a wealthy widow-- beautiful, flirtatious Connor Bailey. Henrie investigates when the hotel is plagued with ghosts and murders and the wedding guests become endangered. Some violence and some strong language.

BLIND VETERANS ASSOCIATION

The Blind Veterans Association (BVA) assists blind or legally blind veterans, with a variety of blindness related issues and resources. To receive a bimonthly newsletter and more information regarding BVA, call 1-800-669-7079.

2005 LARGE PRINT CALENDARS

Large-print and Braille 2005 calendars are available from The Braille Institute of America. Each 8 ½ x 11 page calendar has the month and days printed in bold, 14-point type, with important dates listed at the bottom. The calendar is also embossed in Braille, with room for making notes with a slate and stylus. Each page includes information printed in standard text about blindness issues and the services offered by the Braille Institute. The cost is $5.00 per calendar. For more information or to order your calendar contact The Braille Institute at 1-800-BRAILLE (1-800-272-4553) or visit their website at www.brailleinstitute.org
